What is Seven+™ Classic?

Seven+™ Classic is the world’s first multi-botanical supplement, brought to you by eXfuzé. This revolutionary supplement contains a proprietary blend of seven of the world’s most legendary, botanical extracts (Acai, Goji, Noni, Mangosteen, Gac, Sea-buckthorn and Fucoïdan), enhanced with chaperone molecules, which may be capable of carrying a higher percentage of vital nutrients to the desired locations in the body.* These superfoods were combined with the powerful nutrition of five other potent ingredients (Pomegranate, Wild Blueberries, Grape Seed Extract, Aloe Vera and Concord grapes), which are known for their various health enhancing properties.*

Why Do You Need Seven+™ Classic?

The nutritional benefits of botanicals have been studied for thousands of years. eXfuzé has utilized the best of science and the best of nature and “fuzé” them together for optimum health and wholeness. Seven+™ Classic is the most nutritionally dense liquid supplement on the market today, formulated to give your body the raw materials it needs so it can heal itself.

Seven+™ Classic may even help you sleep better, and sleep is one of the best ways to help your body recover.*

Directions

By simply drinking one 3/4 ounce shot of Seven+™ Classic once a day, you can experience the many benefits of the most innovative and efficacious nutritional supplement the world has ever seen.
